MAKING PRESIDENTS.

Predictions and Politics at Combinations in Washington.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—The appearance of Chauncey I. Fille, of St. Louis here simultaneously with the announcement of Alger's candidacy is looked upon as somewhat significant. There has been a belief that the Blaine element would rally to Alger. The appearance of Fille and numerous others of his element, coupled with the expected arrival of Chairman Clarkson leads to the belief that a consultation of the Blaine followers is to be had.

Senator Clay is daily expected back from Florida and it is not at all certain that the reconciliation between him and the President has proceeded as far as to take him out of the Alger movement. Senator Kellogg was also opposed.

Harrison has just returned from Louisiana with a contract to the delegation in his pocket and will probably join in the conference. The party of anti Harrison people will draw strength away from Harrison by booming their favorite. Blaine is apparently still being pushed. The indications are that ex Speaker Reed is to be pushed to the front as president. A huge reception is to be given him here to-night by the combined republican organizations of this city.

LOUISIANA POLITICS.

Postmaster Eaton Interviewed on the Situation.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—Postmaster Eaton of New Orleans has taken alarm at the prospect of a shaking up by the civil service commission and is here trying to get things straightened out without much prospect of success. Commenting on the general political situation there he said "our republican troubles are likely to work out their own solution, and we will have something like harmony or reconciliation before election day comes around. About the Democracy, I think Louisiana favors Cleveland." Speaking of the lottery he quoted copy of the notices recently posted indicating the determination of the lottery people to respect the law and said, "I think that this notice is honest and sincere and the company means just what it says. The denial of the use of the mails was a fatal blow to the lottery company from which it cannot recover. It took the United States Government to beat them; no other power was sufficient."

MRS. JEFFERSON DAVIS Goes Into Court to Protect Royalty on Davis' Memoirs.

NEW YORK, March 8.—Mrs. Virginia Jefferson Davis, widow of the ex-president of the Southern Confederacy, has brought suit in the United States circuit court to restrain Robert Belford and the Belford company from transferring the rights of this company in the memoirs written by her husband to the United States Book company. Mrs. Davis claims royalties to the amount of $4,000 are due her on sale of the book and she brings suit for recovery of this sum with interest from September.

THE COLOR LINE.

A Negro Prize Fighter Has a Row in a Hotel.

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 8.—George Dixon, a colored bantam weight, who arrived in town with a company, was refused dinner with the white folks in the guests saloon at the Genessee hotel to day. As he had eaten breakfast with Slavin and Mitchell in the same room this morning he and his manager protested lustily, and the manager of the hotel backed down and withdrew the color line.

Mr. Gould's Charity.

NEW YORK, March 8.—Jay Gould has given $25,000 to the University of New York. The gift was made a few days after he gave his check for $10,000 to the Presbyterian church extension committee. It was Mr. Gould's desire that the gift be kept secret.

Died of Yellow Fever.

NEW YORK, March 8th.—Two deaths from Yellow fever on steamship Euclide which arrived from Brazilian ports today caused her detention at the quarantine station.
